Preamble: Acknowledging the inherent dignity and equal rights of all individuals, the Peace Council affirms its commitment to the pursuit of justice, peace, and respect for human rights. With a legacy of two decades and an expanded footprint in Karachi, Multan, Faisalabad, Lahore, and Gujranwala, the Peace Council recognizes the urgent need to address the diverse challenges faced by individuals, particularly in detention centers and vulnerable communities.

Vision: A world where peace reigns and every individual, particularly those in detention, experience the full respect and protection of their inherent dignity. Our vision is rooted in inclusive justice and collective compassion, working towards lasting positive change.

Mission: Committed to peace and human rights, we empower and advocate for prisoners' rights, cultivating a jail environment that upholds their dignity. Through proactive initiatives, we aim for systemic change, fostering a more humane and just criminal justice system.

Resolution:

1. Prisoner Welfare and Advocacy: The Peace Council resolves to intensify efforts in advocating for the welfare and rights of prisoners, striving for humane treatment, access to healthcare, and fair legal representation.
2. Gender Equality and Combatting Harassment: In line with our commitment to gender equality, the Peace Council resolves to continue and enhance campaigns such as "Good Touch Bad Touch," with a focus on preventing harassment and creating safer environments.

3. Elderly Care and Protection: The Peace Council recognizes the unique challenges faced by the elderly and resolves to advocate for policies ensuring their well-being, healthcare access, and protection against abuse.
4. Minority Rights Protection: Acknowledging the importance of a diverse and inclusive society, the Peace Council resolves to uphold and protect the rights of minorities, fostering tolerance and understanding.
5. Expansion of Outreach Programs: The Peace Council resolves to extend outreach programs to new cities and initiate projects that directly impact the lives of prisoners, with a specific emphasis on children, women, and men.
6. Membership Drive: Recognizing the strength in unity, the Peace Council resolves to actively encourage and incorporate new members, fostering a diverse and passionate community dedicated to human rights advocacy.
7. Cultural Integration and Understanding: To promote unity and shared humanity, the Peace Council resolves to enhance initiatives for cultural integration within the prison community, acknowledging the importance of expression and belonging.
8. Peace and Humanity Ceremonies: The Peace Council resolves to continue hosting events like the Peace and Humanity Ceremony, focusing on raising awareness and collecting support for the basic and winter needs of prisoners.
9. Continuous Evaluation and Adaptation: The Peace Council resolves to continuously evaluate its initiatives, remaining adaptable to emerging human rights challenges and ensuring effective and relevant advocacy.

Conclusion: With this resolution, the Peace Council reaffirms its unwavering commitment to the promotion and protection of human rights. Through collective action and steadfast dedication, the Peace Council aims to contribute to a more just, compassionate, and equitable society embarking on this meaningful journey together!
